News/Media Alliance Files Comments on Postal Rate Setting Review; Joins Stakeholder Comments

The News/Media Alliance filed comments with the Postal Regulatory Commission (PRC) on their Statutory Review of the System for Regulating Rates and Classes for Market Dominant Products on July 9. The comments focus on eliminating the non-compensatory surcharge or converting to a performance incentive tied to improvements in cost and service to hold the postal service accountable; prohibiting multiple rate increases in one year; and eliminating the density authority.

Digital ad growth slows as audience revenue gains importance, Borrell reports

The Borrell report reveals interesting data about local newspapers and their efforts to generate more digital ad revenue. Although newspapers' share of core 2023 ad revenue was $5.0 billion compared to radio at $7.3 billion and TV at $9.0 billion, newspapers' share of digital ad revenue was significantly more: 45.5% compared to radio at 21.0% and TV at 16.9%. Another comparison shows local newspapers have more balanced revenue sources than the other legacy media.

Publishers Have Been Hit By Postal Rate Hikes Of 47.8% Since 2021: News/Media Alliance

The USPS rulemaking process is harming itself and publishers, as delivery standards have declined and periodicals volume has fallen by 35.4%, the News/Media Alliance writes in a letter to the Postal Rate Commission. The present ratemaking scheme was authorized by Order No. 5763. The resulting increases have adversely affected newspapers, Marketing Mail, High Density Plus and Saturation flats mail, NMA alleges.

Trust Tips 276: Equip underserved communities to contribute to the news

Community newsrooms around the world have dreams of training and deputizing citizen reporters. It's harder than it looks, especially if you're starting from scratch. One newsroom I've worked with recently has created something valuable as part of a recent project through the Oklahoma Media Center and Trusting News. The project was designed to support selected newsrooms across Oklahoma as they acted on research about what the people of Oklahoma think of local news.
